TAX WITHHOLDING INFORMATION

(Complete only if you are converting from a Traditional, SEP or SIMPLE IRA, or an employer-sponsored retirement plan to a Roth IRA.)

IRS regulations require the Custodian of the IRA from which you are converting to withhold federal income taxes at the rate of 10% from the converted amount, unless you select one of the following:

- Do not withhold taxes from my distribution. Withhold _____% (greater than 10%) or $_____ from my distribution.

Terms: I understand that amounts held from a distribution may be subject to a 10% early withdrawal penalty in addition to income tax. I also understand that a conversion from a Traditional, SEP or SIMPLE IRA, or an employer-sponsored retirement plan to a Roth IRA will be treated as a distribution and may be considered as ordinary income for tax purposes.

Note: Withholding will apply to the entire amount of the conversion, even if non-deductible contributions to the IRA have been made. If you do not elect to have federal income tax withheld, you are liable for payment of federal income tax on the taxable portion of distributions. You may also be subject to the tax penalties under the estimated tax payment rules if your payments of estimated tax and withholding, if any, are not adequate. You may wish to consult a tax advisor regarding the tax consequences for converting your retirement assets to a Roth IRA as well as the implications of withholding amounts from your distribution for federal tax payment.
